

U.S. COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE ELEVENTH CIRCUIT

GENERAL ORDER 36

Before: DUBINA, Chief Judge, TJOFLAT, EDMONDSON, CARNES,
BARKETT, HULL, MARCUS, WILSON, PRYOR, and MARTIN, Circuit Judges.

After an appeal has been assigned to an oral argument panel, any change in or addition to counsel in the appeal requires leave of court. For purposes of this General Order, an appeal is considered assigned to an oral argument panel when the clerk notifies counsel of the specific day of the week on which oral argument in the appeal is scheduled to be heard.

FOR THE COURT:

Chief Judge
