NOTICE

Please note the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act do not apply to the federal judiciary. However, under Judicial Conference of the United States policy, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit provides reasonable accommodations for people with communication disabilities.

The Communication Disability Access Coordinator is responsible for carrying out the judiciary's policy of providing reasonable accommodations to persons with communication disabilities. Individuals participating in federal court proceedings who require the assistance of a qualified sign language interpreter or other auxiliary aids and services may request these accommodations be provided by the court.

The Clerk's Office of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit has designated Jenifer Tubbs as Communication Disability Access Coordinator.

Please submit requests for services in writing to Ms. Tubbs in advance of the court proceeding involved. Please also contact Ms. Tubbs if additional information regarding the judiciary's policy is needed. Below is Ms. Tubbs' contact information.
