Judicial Complaint No. 11-22-90138

ORDER

An individual has filed a Complaint against a United States district judge under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, and the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Background

The record shows that a former political office holder filed a motion seeking, among other things, the appointment of a special master and to enjoin the government from reviewing certain seized materials. Later that month, the government filed a response in opposition to the motion. After a hearing, the Subject Judge issued an order granting the plaintiff's motion in part, authorizing the appointment of a special master to review the seized materials, and temporarily enjoining the government from reviewing and using the seized materials for certain purposes.

The government filed a notice of appeal and a motion for a partial stay pending appeal, and the Subject Judge entered orders denying the motion for a partial stay and appointing the special master. The government also filed in this Court a motion for a partial stay pending appeal, and this Court later granted the motion.

Afterward, the special master issued an Amended Case Management Plan directing the parties to take various actions by certain deadlines, and the plaintiff filed objections to the amended plan. The Subject Judge then issued an order accepting in part and rejecting in part the amended plan, finding the order appointing the special master did not contemplate certain aspects of the plan, and extending certain deadlines.

Complaint

Complainant alleges the Subject Judge “twist[ed] the Law in knots to undermine” a criminal investigation into the plaintiff. Complainant asserts the plaintiff’s “legal team specifically shopped the courts for [the Subject Judge] and has been waging [a] judicial terrorism campaign in [the Subject Judge’s] court to hinder” the investigation. Complainant states the Subject Judge “has been prevaricating on behalf of” the plaintiff and issued favorable rulings using “Phantom Logic” without any “Judicial foundation” for the rulings and orders. Complainant contends the Subject Judge issued an order giving the plaintiff “special protections that are rarely afforded to any criminal suspect,” ignored the United States Constitution, violated her oath of office, improperly allowed the special master to review classified documents, exhibited an “utter disregard for National Security,” and engaged in “reckless behavior” that no reasonable person would engage in “unless it was in Collusion or furtherance of aiding a special Cause, Cult or Special Person.” Finally, Complainant states that any lawyer or reasonable law student would find the Subject Judge’s rulings “laughably bad.”

Discussion

Judicial-Conduct Rule 4(b)(1) provides in part that “[c]ognizable misconduct does not include an allegation that calls into question the correctness of a judge’s ruling, including a failure to recuse.” The Commentary on Rule 4 explains the rationale for this rule as follows:

Rule 4(b)(1) tracks the Act, 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii), in excluding from the definition of misconduct allegations “[d]irectly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling.” This exclusion preserves the independence of judges in the exercise of judicial authority by ensuring that the complaint procedure is not used to collaterally call into question the substance of a judge’s decision or procedural ruling. Any allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official decision or procedural ruling of a judge — without more — is merits-related.

The Complaint fails to present a basis for a finding of misconduct. To the extent Complainant's allegations concern the substance of the Subject Judge's official actions, rulings, findings, and orders in the above-described case, the allegations are directly related to the merits of the Subject Judge's decisions or procedural rulings. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(B). Complainant's remaining claims are based on allegations lacking sufficient evidence to raise an inference that the Subject Judge acted with an illicit or improper motive, was biased, used her office to obtain special treatment for the plaintiff, violated her oath of office, colluded with others, or otherwise engaged in misconduct. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(D). For these reasons, this Complaint is DISMISSED.
