

PUBLIC NOTICE

Reappointment of Judge Laurel Myerson Isicoff Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge, Southern District of Florida

The current 14-year term of The Honorable Laurel Myerson Isicoff, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Southern District of Florida at Miami, is due to expire on 12 February 2020. The United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit is considering whether to reappoint Chief Bankruptcy Judge Isicoff to a new 14-year term of office as a bankruptcy judge.

Upon reappointment, the incumbent would continue to exercise the jurisdiction of a bankruptcy judge as specified in United States Code title 28, United States Code title 11, and the Bankruptcy Amendment and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-353, §§ 101-122, 98 Stat. 333-346. In bankruptcy cases and proceedings referred by the district court, the incumbent would continue to perform the duties of a bankruptcy judge that might include holding status conferences, conducting hearings and trials, making final determinations, entering orders and judgments, and submitting proposed finding of fact and conclusions of law to the district court.

Members of the bar and the public are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the Court of Appeals concerning the reappointment of Chief Bankruptcy Judge Isicoff to a new 14-year term of office in Miami. If requested, the identity of a respondent to this solicitation will not be divulged without prior consent. However, Chief Bankruptcy Judge Isicoff will be provided with a general description of the source and nature of any comments. All comments should be submitted to Mr. James P. Gerstenlauer, Circuit Executive, Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals, 56 Forsyth Street, NW, Atlanta, Georgia 30303. Comments must be received in the Circuit Executive's Office no later than 22 July 2019.
