ABOUT THE STAFF ATTORNEY'S OFFICE

The Eleventh Circuit's Staff Attorney's Office serves the court as a central legal staff, assisting it in the disposition of federal appeals through the preparation of legal memoranda. The Staff Attorney's Office is currently made up of attorneys, including career supervisory staff attorneys and staff attorneys who serve staggered two-year terms, as well as administrative professionals who perform administrative, operational, and supervisory functions. Staff attorneys review case records and filings, conduct legal research, and draft bench memoranda and proposed opinions to assist the judges in the consideration and resolution of a wide variety of cases on appeal. Staff Attorneys develop expertise in civil and criminal procedure and in various areas of substantive law, including criminal, sentencing, immigration, employment discrimination, civil rights, habeas corpus, and Social Security. Additionally, a specialized team within the office assists the court in the initial review of all appeals for the purpose of determining appellate jurisdiction. Another specialized team presents substantive motions to the court, including motions for in forma pauperis status, certificates of appealability, transcripts at government expense, and withdrawal/substitution of counsel. Finally, our special appellate matters unit handles special projects from the court and tracks legal issues as they develop in the U.S. Supreme Court and the Eleventh Circuit.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The career staff attorney is a permanent position rather than a term position and reports directly to the Deputy Senior Staff Attorney. The career staff attorney independently conducts legal research, reviews case records/filings, drafts proposed opinions, memoranda, and orders, and provides objective advice to judges, chambers, and court staff. The incumbent also mentors and works with less experienced term staff attorneys in conjunction with members of the supervisory team and is responsible for coordinating, and at times participating in, new staff attorney orientation, as well as subsequent attorney training needs and initiatives.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

Applicants must possess a Juris Doctor from a law school of recognized standing and have excellent academic credentials. Applicants also must have superior analytical, research, writing, and editing skills, with law review or equivalent legal research and writing experience. At least two years of relevant post-Juris Doctor experience and bar admission is required.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

Federal judicial staff attorney experience is strongly preferred.

ATLANTA

Despite Atlanta's fast pace, southern hospitality is still alive and well in Georgia's capital. Atlanta mixes affordable living expenses with a thriving economy, vibrant cultural scene, rich history, and mild weather. This unique mix explains why so many law firms, entrepreneurs, young professionals, and Fortune 500 companies have moved here. It has earned a reputation expressed in its various nicknames: "City in a Forest," for its unique tree canopy; "Cradle of the Civil Rights Movement," for its many civil rights icons such as Martin Luther King, Jr.; and "Hollywood of the South," for its booming film industry. The Staff Attorney's Office is located in the heart of Downtown Atlanta, within walking distance of the Center for Civil and Human Rights, the Georgia Aquarium, the World of Coca-Cola, Centennial Olympic Park, the College Football Hall of Fame, and the Atlanta CNN Center. The Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site, the Atlanta BeltLine, the Atlanta Botanical Garden, Piedmont Park, the Fernbank Museum of Natural History, and the High Museum of Art are all within minutes of our office.
