Before the Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

Judicial Complaint No. 11-24-90213

ORDER

An individual has filed a Complaint against a United States district judge under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, and the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Background

The record establishes that Complainant filed a civil complaint against multiple defendants. The Subject Judge entered an order dismissing the complaint on the ground that Complainant lacked standing. Complainant then filed a motion to disqualify the Subject Judge, a notice of appeal, and a motion to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal. The Subject Judge entered orders denying the motion to disqualify and denying the in forma pauperis motion.

Complaint

Complainant takes issue with the dismissal of his complaint, and he contends “that another district judge was assigned to said case and [the Subject Judge] was esoterically assigned” because he did not recall the Subject Judge being the assigned district judge before the order was issued. Complainant alleges there is probable cause that the Subject Judge “impeded justice” and “deliberately deprived” Complainant of his rights to a fair trial and an impartial court by denying his in forma pauperis motion. Complainant also alleges the Subject Judge deliberately denied the in forma pauperis motion to delay review of his case and to “weaponize his poverty.” He attached documents to his Complaint.

Discussion

Judicial-Conduct Rule 4(b)(1) provides in part that “[c]ognizable misconduct does not include an allegation that calls into question the correctness of a judge’s ruling, including a failure to recuse.” The Commentary on Rule 4 explains the rationale for this rule as follows:

Rule 4(b)(1) tracks the Act, 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii), in excluding from the definition of misconduct allegations “[d]irectly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling.” This exclusion preserves the independence of judges in the exercise of judicial authority by ensuring that the complaint procedure is not used to collaterally call into question the substance of a judge’s decision or procedural ruling. Any allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official decision or procedural ruling of a judge — without more — is merits-related.

Furthermore, Judicial-Conduct Rule 4(b)(2) provides that cognizable misconduct does not include “an allegation about delay in rendering a decision or ruling, unless the allegation concerns an improper motive in delaying a particular decision or habitual delay in a significant number of unrelated cases.” The “Commentary on Rule 4” states that “a complaint of delay in a single case is excluded as merits-related.”

The Complaint fails to present a basis for a finding of misconduct. To the extent Complainant’s allegations concern the substance of the Subject Judge’s official actions, rulings, findings, and orders in the above-described case, the allegations are directly related to the merits of the Subject Judge’s decisions or procedural rulings. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(B). Complainant’s remaining claims are based on allegations lacking sufficient evidence to raise an inference that the Subject Judge acted with an illicit or improper motive or otherwise engaged in misconduct. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(D). For these reasons, this Complaint is DISMISSED.
