Before the Chief Judge of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit

Judicial Complaint No. 11-24-90219

ORDER

An individual has filed a Complaint against a United States district judge under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, and the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Background

The record establishes that a federal grand jury returned an indictment charging Complainant with one crime. Complainant filed a motion to suppress certain evidence, and the Subject Judge denied the motion. After additional proceedings, Complainant pleaded guilty to the charge in the indictment, and the Subject Judge accepted the plea. The Subject Judge sentenced Complainant to a term of imprisonment.

Complaint

Complainant states that he “has been prejudiced by this court” and that the Subject Judge was defrauded and had “false records.” He also raises allegations against an individual other than the Subject Judge, and he attached documents to his Complaint.

Discussion

The Complaint fails to present a basis for a finding of misconduct. Complainant’s claims are based on allegations lacking sufficient evidence to raise an inference that the Subject Judge engaged in misconduct. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(D). For that reason, this Complaint is DISMISSED.
