Eleventh Judicial Circuit

Judicial Complaint No. 11-26-90065

ORDER

An individual has filed a Complaint against a United States district judge under the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act of 1980, 28 U.S.C. §§ 351–364, and the Rules for Judicial-Conduct and Judicial-Disability Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Background

Complainant filed in state court a civil complaint against a company, which removed the case to federal court. After Complainant filed an amended complaint, the Subject Judge adopted a magistrate judge’s report and dismissed the case.

Complaint

Complainant contends the Subject Judge dismissed the case without resolving the issues or awarding her damages. She also takes issue with the actions of other individuals and entities.

Discussion

Judicial-Conduct Rule 4(b)(1) provides in part that “[c]ognizable misconduct does not include an allegation that calls into question the correctness of a judge’s ruling, including a failure to recuse.” The Commentary on Rule 4 explains the rationale for this rule as follows:

Rule 4(b)(1) tracks the Act, 28 U.S.C. § 352(b)(1)(A)(ii), in excluding from the definition of misconduct allegations “[d]irectly related to the merits of a decision or procedural ruling.” This exclusion preserves the independence of judges in the exercise of judicial authority by ensuring that the complaint procedure is not used to collaterally call into question the substance of a judge’s decision or procedural ruling. Any allegation that calls into question the correctness of an official decision or procedural ruling of a judge — without more — is merits-related.

The Complaint fails to present a basis for a finding of misconduct. All of Complainant’s allegations concern the substance of the Subject Judge’s order dismissing the case, and the allegations are directly related to the merits of the Subject Judge’s decisions or procedural rulings. Judicial-Conduct Rule 11(c)(1)(B). For that reason, this Complaint is DISMISSED.
